Sunday comes... Every. Single. Week.

Your day-to-day ministry never stops. Between planning for worship services, small groups, and family ministry events, it can be difficult to find time to create relationships with new people.

That's why we've developed the following camp experiences... to save you time and make it easier to meet unchurched people. Our team helps your leaders create places in the community that provide common ground so that you can be the type of church that meets new people.

Your church's plan to meet new people:

1 » Book An Experience

Bring a remarkable day camp experience right to your community! We handle the details of the camp week so you don't have to.

2 » Gain Trust With Your Community

Not everyone in your community is thinking about church. Create common ground with your community to reach people outside your walls.

3 » Meet New People

Celebrate with your church by growing your relationships and becoming the type of church that meets new people.
